Last Saturday night two natives, who were having a quiet little time of their own on Hotel street, entered the Chinese chop house next to Ramsey's grocery, about half-past eleven o'clock, and amused themselves, while the cook was preparing their supper, by breaking up the dishes in sight. It is needless to say that the Chinamen took matters the best he could and the scene was ended later on by two policemen shouldering the natives and taking them to the Police Station.

About half-past eleven o'clock Saturday evening a little scene occurred at Fowler's yard, in which Policeman No. 13 was directly interested. One of the roomers of that place was drunk and was having a little celebration in his room. Sam Kalapoepe, Policeman No. 13, told the drunken roomer to keep quiet as it was after eleven o'clock. The roomer called the policeman a vile name. When the policeman went up stairs the roomer told him he had no business to come up to his room without a warrant and defied the policeman to touch him. A friend of the roomer fired the policeman out. The policeman told the friend that he would go to the police station and get a warrant for their arrest. When the policeman went to the Station House for the warrant Mr. Dayton told him to wait until Monday before he made out the warrant for the arrest. Mr. Dayton returned with the policeman to the scene of the disturbance.

They say: that the end of politics is the almighty dollar; that the hope of the Government is the prolonged indulgence of the people; that the skating rinks make more fun than bruises; that the best kind of fans do not run Fort street is really and truly a nabob; that the best dividend is the change of a Kalakaua dollar; that the roads around the Casino are fine evening drives; that some fans are worth $9 apiece; that in some cases hack rides are worth more than 25 cents; that the new management at the Central Park skating rink will make it pay; that the Hawaiian Hotel is going to have a boom; that the Band reception at Dr. McGrew's last night was a great success; that the boat boys intend having a good time this fall; that they deserve success; that the Japanese question will raise a row in the end if the Government doesn't look out; and that the independent press will not be supported in Honolulu unless it takes sides.

Report of the Steamer C. R. Bishop.

HONOLULU, October 12, 1885.
HIS EXCELLENCY, CHAS. T. GULICK.
—Sir: I have the honor to report to Your Excellency that, in accordance to your instructions, the steamer C. R. Bishop, under my command, sailed from Honolulu at noon on Friday, October 2, 1885, proceeded to Lahaina where we arrived at 11 P. M. (having spoken on our way the following vessels: Steamer Kapiolani, schooners Joséphine and Mana and steamer Mokoli), after taking Dr. Keahu on board, we waited for the arrival of the steamer Kinau and communicated with her at 2 P. M. October 3rd, sailed from Lahaina and touched at Kahoolawe where she communicated with the steamer Iwawani from windward ports. Receiving no tidings of the schooner Ka Moi from any of the above vessels we steamed away towards south-west, keeping a bright lookout from aloft all the time. Our cruise extended as far south as Lat. 17° and Long. 154° 50'. Distance sailed in all directions is nearly 1,200 miles and deeming search unavailable we shaped our course for Honolulu where we arrived at 10 A. M., Monday, October 12th. Having, I am sorry to say, seen no signs of the missing schooner Ka Moi.

I have the honor to be, your obedient servant,
J. R. MACANLEY,
Master Steamer C. R. Bishop.

The Planters' Convention.

The Planters' Labor and Supply Company met last Saturday. At the afternoon session Mr. J. M. Homer read the report of the Committee on Cane Cultivation. The Convention accepted the report and ordered it printed in the Planters' Monthly. Mr. B. F. Dillingham read the report of the Committee on Live Stock. Mr. Dole read the report of the Committee on Fruit Culture. The labor question was discussed by Messrs. Horner, Bailey, Lidgate, Smith, Baldwin and Thurston. The Convention then adjourned until ten o'clock yesterday morning. At the session of yesterday Mr. B. F. Dillingham read the minutes of the last meeting. After the transaction of some minor business Mr. Atherton reported that the Treasurer's report had been examined and found correct. Mr. Halstead then read the report of the Committee on Machinery. Mr. T. H. Davies read the report of the Committee on Legislation. Mr. Rowell had not finished the report of the Committee on Transportation and when completed it will be published in the Planters' Monthly. The report of the Committee on Sugar Manufacture was read by Mr. H. P. Baldwin. Mr. Lidgate read a report on the same subject. The question of sugar manufacture was discussed by Messrs. Horner, Bailey, Baldwin, Lidgate and Macfie. Mr. G. H. Dole then read the report of the Committee on Fertilizers, which was accepted and ordered printed.

Answers to Correspondents.

X. Y.—No. We are neither for or against the Chinese immigration question. If the planters wish to discuss the subject however our columns are open.

B. B.—We do not think so. If the Government acts in good faith they will carry out their contract with the Japanese Government. Otherwise the Hawaiian Government will get left.

Sweet Apple.—No; it may be your taste and very funny to your friends, but for our part we do not publish social gossip where it is personal and offensive.

Britisher.—No sir, we delayed publishing Mr. Davies' letter until this morning for two reasons; first, lack of space and secondly because we wanted to get our proofs where we could put our finger on them.

Milwaukee has $6,000,000, invested in beer.
Cincinnati burns about 2,100,000 tons of coal annually.

The newspapers and their outfits in the United States are valued at $96,500,560.

It was observed in connection with the recent picnic of the Chicago Socialists that "three hundred kegs of beer were consumed," while the motto displayed was "Our Children Cry for Bread."

Ruse of a Chinese Criminal.

Wong Chin Foo, who was employed as interpreter and secret agent in working up the case against Fong Ah Yue, arrested in Montreal for the murder of Sing Lee and delivered lately to the American authorities, tells an interesting story of the case. He says for some years the Chinese laundry business of Montreal was monopolized by three brothers named Fong. They had accumulated a fortune and were owners of five large establishments in Montreal. In 1884 Chuen Jin arrived, opened a rival place in the neighborhood, gained the good-will of the Canadians and built up a lucrative business. The Fongs then commenced persecuting him, brought lawsuits and there were bitter litigations, Chuen Jin winning the suits. Sing Lee was an educated laundryman in Rome, N. Y., and a friend of Chuen Jin. By his efforts the Fongs were defeated and imprisoned stared them in the face. Then followed Sing Lee's sudden disappearance and subsequent revelations. Wong Chin Foo said he worked up the clues which led to the arrest of Fong Ah Yue. He says the latter led a double life in Montreal. By day he wore Chinese clothes, managed the laundry and was known as Fong Ah Yue. At night he assumed an American raiment, became a man about town, and was known as John Fowler. In his latter character he was an active member of the Young Men's Christian Association, carried visiting cards on which his American name was engraved and kept up a limited correspondence in English. Under the alias of Fowler he had secured the entire into some Montreal homes, and had become the acknowledged lover of a pretty Canadian girl, the daughter of a prosperous tailor. In the tailor's house was found his American clothes, by which he was identified. He is now in the jail of Oneida county.
